

You are invited to the Crossroads Interdisciplinary Health Research Conference

Basic Income and Health Panel

Paul O'Regan Hall, Halifax Central Library
Friday March 15th, 2019
4:30pm-5:30pm

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to have a basic income policy in Nova Scotia? A panel of interdisciplinary speakers will discuss the health, economic and social policy implications of implementing a basic income policy in Nova Scotia. Join us for our second panel discussion of the day. Crossroads Conference panels are open to the public!

Moderator:

Dr. Rebecca Hasdell

PhD, Ecology Action Centre and Dalhousie Food Policy Fellow, and Adjunct Faculty in the Northern Medical Program at the University of Northern British Columbia

Panel Members:

Dr. Christine Saulnier

PhD, Nova Scotia Director of the Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives

Dr. Catherine Mah

MD, FRCPC, PhD, Canada Research Chair in Promoting Healthy Populations and Associate Professor, School of Health Administration, Dalhousie University

Dr. Elizabeth Kay-Raining Bird

PhD, Chair of Basic Income Guarantee-Nova Scotia and Professor in the School of Human Communication Disorders at Dalhousie University

Graham Steele
